HOW IT WORKS

Earn Business Volume (BV) points by helping your new Customers get started with Isagenix and by showing them how to help new Customers get started too. Every time they order and their new Customers order, you earn BV points. We call this 'You Share, They Share' and the graphic explains how it works!

You might already have an existing Customer base, which is great! But for the Fiji Challenge your BV points will only count for your NEW Customers and their NEW Customers orders during the competition dates.

One of your NEW 4PET members cannot contribute more than 75% of your total contest volume.

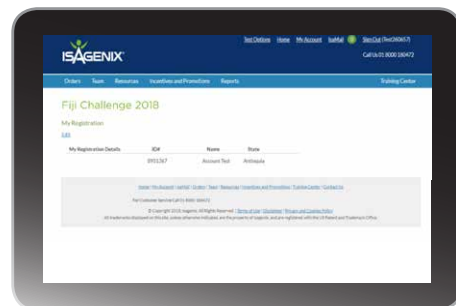

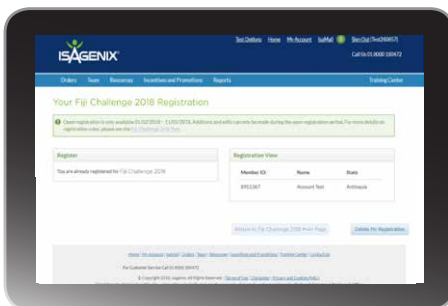

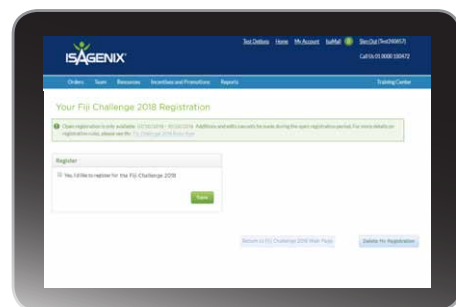

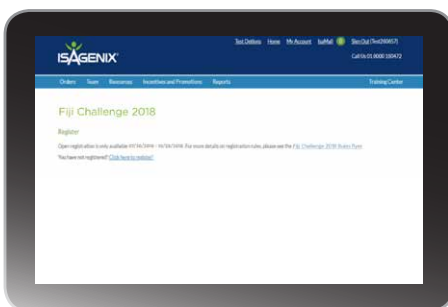

STEP 1

Opt-In via the Back Office under the 'Contests & Promotions' tab and select 'Fiji Challenge'.

Registration is open from 30 July 12:01am US EST until 28 October.

(Note: BV points will back date to start of the competition)

STEP 2

Follow the 'You Share, They Share' system to build a NEW Customer base by sharing Isagenix with new Customers and show your new Customers how to get their new Customers started too. Any orders your new Customer base places during the competition period will count towards your total BV points.

For more information on 'You Share, They Share' you can find the script and flyer under the 'Tools' tab at ANZ.IsagenixBusiness.com

There is no need to stop there. You will continue to accrue BV points from 4 levels of your personally-enrolled team.

STEP 3

Achieve 10,000 BV or more to qualify for your prize!

FAQS

WHAT ORDERS FROM MY CUSTOMER BASE COUNT TOWARDS MY TOTAL BV?

Any orders placed will accrue BV and you will therefore accrue BV points for the Fiji Challenge from 4 levels of your personally-enrolled team. If you had personally-enrolled Customers prior to the start of the Fiji Challenge, this BV will not count towards your total BV for the Fiji Challenge. Only the BV from new customers in your 4PET will count towards the Fiji Challenge.
